

Celebration of Peace

www.ThinkGlobalArts.org

FILM FESTIVAL

"We Speak as One"

Following a rigorous internal screening process, we present to you an exceptional selection of the most-lauded, award-winning documentaries depicting powerful and compelling true stories of peace and conflict resolution around the globe.

A Force More Powerful

This documentary carefully weaves three separate but related episodes in history, demonstrating how nonviolent power overcame oppression and authoritarian rule. The film begins in India in the 1940s, journeys through Nashville, Tennessee in the 1960s, and ends in the Eastern Cape province of South Africa in the mid-1980s.

"When people decide they want to be free...there is nothing that can stop them."
--Desmond Tutu

West Bank Story

A lively musical comedy set in the fast-paced fast-food world of competing falafel stands in the West Bank. A little singing, a little dancing, a lot of hummus, West Bank Story is a 2006 Academy Award Winner for "Best Live Action Short Film."

We Speak As One

Twelve Nobel Laureates share their inspirational vision for peace by addressing those pressing issues that face today's young people around the world.

Free popcorn and ice cream

Celebration of Peace

www.ThinkGlobalArts.org

Each weekday on Chicago Public Radio's Worldview, Jerome provides global affairs coverage of world issues with in-depth conversations on international issues and their local impact.

Jerome joined the staff of Chicago Public Radio in 1984 as an intern, later becoming a producer for the former programs Inside Business, and Midday with Sondra Gair—an international news analysis show. He has been a producer of Weekend Edition Saturday and also served as executive director of talk programming.

Jerome has a Peter Lisagor award and has been awarded by the Illinois Broadcasters' Association for "Best Public Affairs Program in a Series."

Jerome has an M.A. in Communications from Northern Illinois University.

A native of Chicago, Jerome resides in Arlington Heights with his wife, Janet. They have two sons, Sam and Owen.